

You could make this fruit tree ans if you don't have pretzels, you could use chipstick crisps

Or make a rainbow with some fruit

You could cut a sandwich into different shapes. A star, the moon, a fish, maybe even a butterfly if you are feeling adventurous, or make some up yourself. I have put some examples below for you....

And if you want to do another activity, try finding some stones while you are out and about and painting them. If you don't have paints but can find a light coloured stone, felt tip pens might work. Some examples below of what you can do
